SUFFRAGIST ADDRESSES.

Miss Mary Keegan Tells How It Feels to be in Jail in England For the Cause—French Speaker at Work.

Miss Mary Keegan, the English militant member of the suffrage campaign, who is running here this week spoke at the state of the Thread mill Wednesday noon to a large crowd of men and women, as could hear her voice.

"How does it feel to go to jail?" a man shouted from the crowd and although that caused a laugh there was plenty of sympathy for the speaker when she explained in no uncertain terms that it does not feel pleasant. "One day while I was in Holloway jail," said Miss Keegan, "I amused myself by scratching 'Votes for Women' on the wall. For that they put me into the solitary confinement cell. These cells are below ground and without a particle of light. The temperature stands at about forty degrees, for there is no heat and the moisture runs down the walls. The cells are alive with vermin. I have had wood plank to sleep on and the stumps of a tree to sit on and there I sat all day until I thought I should go crazy with it. If you think there is anything funny in such punishment for any crime you are mistaken. A man doing what I had done would have been put into the most comfortable cell in the prison, allowed to have his friends and meals come in from the outside to have sunshine and books and every comfort but his liberty. The woman who asks for the vote in England is treated like a murderer. In your country the situation is very different."

After the speeches were ended the suffragists did a rushing trade in buttons and the purple, green and white of the movement was much in evidence in the mill Wednesday afternoon. Miss Keegan will speak on the militant movement Friday night in the suffrage headquarters on Church street. For the benefit of the French speaking people Madame Jeanne Cheruy, a suffragist from Paris will speak the same evening in her own language. It has been arranged that Madame Cheruy shall open the big mass meeting which is to be held in Loomer opera house Thursday night. Mrs. Carlos Stoddard of New Haven is to be the regular speaker for the French association. Madame Cheruy will be explained to them in French before the regular programme. Madame Cheruy has been at the state of the Thread mill for several days, for she hopes to organize a group of French people to work for the cause. An organization of the English speaking people has already been arranged and

Ask for Tax Reductions.

The taxpayers' reduction contingent appeared again before the board of relief, Tuesday forenoon, to give their reasons why they thought their tax lists too high. Wednesday's session was the most interesting yet of the series and the monotony of the routine objections was varied by the star speech of Mr. Henry H. Henry, a Bugbee relative to the assessors' valuation of his block on Main street and land and tenement houses on Ash street. He was loaded to the muzzle with facts and figures, vouchers of cost of buildings, etc., and marshalled his statistical forces before the board to impress them of the enormity of his grievances.

James Johnson objected to the assessment of his business block on Church street and his North street livery stable, but had no fault to find with the valuation of his house property. The other requests for reductions were made by Mrs. Katherine A. Baker, Mary A. Cranston for the John Spencer estate, William D. Lason, William Maxwell for Mary A. Connelly property, John McDonough, Annie and Lizzie Casey and Michael Casey.

THE TRUE TEST

Tried in Norwich, It Has Stood the Test.

The hardest test is the test of time, and Doan's Kidney Pills have stood it well in Norwich. Kidney sufferers can hardly ask for stronger proof than the following:

Mrs. C. Bennett, 46 Palmer St., Norwich, Conn., says: "Some years ago a member of my family suffered from backache. Every cold he caught settled on his kidneys and aggravated the trouble. His kidneys were disordered as was shown by the kidney secretions being irregular in passage. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at N. D. Sevin & Son's Drug Store, brought prompt relief." (Statement given August 27, 1905.)

LASTING EFFECT.

At a later interview Mrs. Bennett said: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured a member of my family of kidney trouble some years ago and there has been no recurrence of it. I willingly confirm my former public endorsement of this remedy."

Principal Case's Recommendations.

In Principal Case's recommendations address on the Windham High School Tuesday evening, he showed that in reports from 103 high schools in this state only three showed a lower net cost for maintenance than does the Windham High school. This is not because of a miserly policy, but because with a better building and better facilities a larger number of pupils are taught at a smaller per capita cost. Principal Case urges the need of the immediate finishing of the interior of the new high school building and equipping it with a system of telephone and clocks. A more stable teaching force he believes would be secured by a salary schedule and a systematic tenure of office. There is a great need here of physical training under the direction of a competent physical instructor and also of adequate recreation grounds at the school building.

Wages Held Up for Rent.

Attorney S. B. Harvey representing Dominick Menditto, Wednesday caused the wages of P. Morrissey, an employee of the Consolida road, to be garnished, to secure a claim for $15 Menditto has against Morrissey for the rent of a tenement. Constable W. J. Hastings served the papers, visiting the pay car on the 11.17 a. m. train to make the seizure.

DEDICATED $50,000

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING
Handsome New Structure Complete in All Equipments—Ready to Take Its Place in the Community.

An interest that meant more than any merely passing notice of the completion of a new structure in the business center of Willimantic was shown in the dedication of the $50,000 new Y. M. C. A. building Wednesday evening. It was an occasion when the Thread City registered its concern for the community's welfare by the giving of its best in the establishment of a Y. M. C. A. plant in this city for the present and future generations of young men.

The dedicatory exercises as announced were carried out in the presence of a large audience, representing interdenominational and community interests and a common recognition of the purposes and achievements of the Y. M. C. A. While the officers and directors of the association and their wives were received in the main lobby, Helmsold's orchestra rendered a fine concert program.

Formal Exercises in Gymnasium.

The formal dedicatory exercises were held in the gymnasium. President of L. Harroun presiding. Rev. W. S. Bond, pastor of the First Congregational church offered prayer and C. H. Caswell rendered a vocal solo. The scripture was read by Rev. L. M. Flocken, pastor of the Methodist church.

In introducing the first speaker, State Secretary E. C. Bates, President Harroun referred to the founding of the local association thirteen years ago. He said to the men who started the movement in this city, this event almost seems like a dream. He regarded the fruition of their hopes as a matter to pray for and paid a high tribute to the strong faith and good works of the general secretary, S. B. Doolittle.

The Financial Cornerstones.

President Harroun also spoke of the Cushman legacy and the substantial gift of Edwin Bugbee, the financial cornerstones upon which the new building was founded. He referred to the large part the state secretary had taken in crystallizing public sentiment and organizing the local association. Secretary Bates' remarks were of a reminiscent character. He reviewed the events that led to the organization of the Willimantic Y. M. C. A. and the erection of the new building and congratulated the community for the churches and the association upon possessing the best $50,000 Y. M. C. A. building in the state.

Dedicatory Address.

The dedicatory address was by L. J. Duggett, D. H. D., president of the Y. M. C. A. college at Springfield, Mass. The great practical question of today is the relation of young men to their community. At length he discussed the aim and achievements of the Y. M. C. A. movement, in training young men to meet the demand of modern industry, social and religious problems.

Chairman of Building Committee.

President Harroun in announcing the next speaker, Hon. Frank E. Bugbee, spoke of the generous gifts of Mr. Bugbee's father and of E. Frank Bugbee, of the American Thread company. Gilbert Smith and the Cushman contribution. Mr. Bugbee, who is chairman of the building committee said the keys could not formally be presented to the association on this occasion as several minor details were still to be completed before the building was accepted, but that formally would be finished in a few days. He referred to the invaluable work of the general secretary, S. B. Doolittle in his oversight of the construction work and expressed his hope and belief that the community would realize its hopes in the new building's facilities to meet the purposes for which it was erected.

The exercises closed with singing and the benediction was pronounced by the association on this occasion as several minor details were still to be completed before the building was accepted, but that formally would be finished in a few days.
